- ▶ Thailand
- ▶ Laos
- ▶ Vietnam and
- ▶ The Gulf of Thailand

The reason why the UN helped Cambodia.

- ▶ In February 1992, the United Nations passed Resolution 745 (1992) establishing the mission to commence operations.
- ▶ UNTAC was a joint military-civilian mission intended to help bring peace and stability to the war-torn nation.
- ▶ The main objective was to implement a cease-fire to end a civil war that began to flourish in 1989.

The mission had four primary tasks.

- ▶ Conduct free and fair general elections
- ▶ The maintenance of law
- ▶ The resettlement of Cambodia refugees
- ▶ The rehabilitation of essential Cambodia infrastructure during the transitional period

The peace force strength and the Canadian Contingent.

15,000 soldiers and 7,000 civilian workers.

- ▶ 46 participating countries provided military observers, police, or troops
- ▶ 240 Canadian Forces personnel participated at any one time
- ▶ 92 Transport Company strength was 140 logistics troops
- ▶ The next slide will show the 11 nations that each provided an Infantry Battalion for the entire 18-month duration of the mission

Cambodia's troubled past

- ▶ The Khmer Rouge was a brutal regime that ruled Cambodia, under the leadership of Marxist dictator Pol Pot, from 1975 to 1979. Pol Pot's attempts to create a Cambodian “master race” through social engineering ultimately led to the deaths of more than 2 million people in the Southeast Asian country.

No. 92 Transport Company

- ▶ Delivered food, fuel, election supplies and other goods required by the UN.

No. 92 Transport Company

- Our primary task was a challenging job of transporting supplies while the country still saw guerrilla activity and wide-spread banditry in some regions.

Road Convoy Example #1

In the next slide, it will show pictures of loading heavy lumber and gravel into our trucks.

A typical convoy rest stop in the middle of the road.

Unloading at the Malaysian Infantry Battalion.

This tasking was an 8-hour trip one-way to a sector in the Northwest region of the country.

Road Convoy Example #2

In the next slide, it will show pictures of an MLVW truck leaving our Camp.

An unexpected stop to fix a load that had shifted.

The load was a mix of election and office supplies for the voting stations.

The destination town was a coastal city in the country's south-west on the Gulf of Thailand.

Notice the palm trees in the photo.

Road Convoy Example #3

In the next slide, you'll see a tasking to a north-east sector that involved crossing a ferry with our trucks.

It was necessary to use the ferry system to access the sectors across the Mekong and Tonlé Sap Rivers.

After this delivery and many others, an overnight hotel was necessary as the UN did not operate after dark for safety and security reasons.

Road Convoy Example #4

In the next slide you'll see, pallets of meals, ready to eat (MREs) being loading by forklift onto our trucks.

Driving through the countryside.

Crossing a Bailey bridge.

This delivery was to resupply another Contingent located a day's drive from the capital.

Camp Canada

92 Transport Company driver's rotated between 2 weeks of driving and 1 week of camp duties over the 6-month tour.
